Hi Caroline
I don't mind sending another letter again to that address however, I have had no reply from him since I first sent out the original letter. He may have moved from that address I don't know. I have tried ringing directory enquiries to find out if he is listed as having a number there but they have no-one registered of that name at that address.
So I really don't know what to suggest. I will send out the letter again
With thanks

Debbie,
May I kindly ask you to try again to find Mr Brian Keating, perhaps via another channel, I don't know, but I urgently need the documents.
Thanks for keeping me informed.

Carol

Hi Caroline

I have sent out a reminder to Brian however, I have tried to get a telephone number for his last known address but there is no-one listed under that address. SO this is not looking hopeful.
